passport*by - solarigirl@gmail.com (14 Jan 2009 08:35:26 AM)

To whom it may concern, my publicist was told that I needed to send in a copy of my passport to get my date of birth changed, as it is inaccurate in your database. I sent it in twice, and it is still not changed. Who can handle this for me, it should say [REDACTED] 1978. Also, the biographer submitted his bio for me, Bill Zehme, and the date and information in my bio was also altered. I have been following your rules and guidelines and yet this issue is still not remedied. He wrote a wonderful bio - and the opening lines were removed and closing lines. Can someone please handle this? I have been very patient with this, and have followed your instructions, and yet it is still not handled. thanks my email address is solarigirl@gmail.com my cell number is [REDACTED]

Re: passport*by - IMDb Help Desk (14 Jan 2009 05:31:33 PM)

Ms. Solari:

Thank you for sending us the documentation we requested.

Examination of your passport data verifies that your birthdate is [REDACTED] 1973

Since this is the date currently listed on our website, the document confirms that our birthdate information is already factually correct and that no changes are needed.

We appreciate your help in keeping the Internet Movie Database the most complete and reliable source of movie and TV information on the web.

Please let us know if you need further assistance.

Dear Roger,
my passport says [REDACTED] 1978. I have had it sent twice to IMDb. The IMDb website currently lists the wrong date. If you cannot help me with this, who else can I contact? I have been trying to remedy this for some time now.

Please answer the following questions:

A) did you receive the copy of my passport which states my birthdate is [REDACTED] 1978? (this is a yes or no answer)

B) If you did receive it why have you not corrected my birthdate on my IMDb page?

C) What is your actual position at IMDb?

C) What is the contact information for the manager of IMDb so I can contact them, if you do not directly answer these questions, so I can get this handled, as well as the legal department.

Thanks for your time.

Dear Roger,

you did not answer ANY of my questions. So below are my questions I would really appreciate if you could answer them, and of course change my page to the correct date which is [REDACTED] 1978.

A) did you receive the copy of my passport which states my birthdate is [REDACTED] 1978? (this is a yes or no answer)

B) If you did receive it why have you not corrected my birthdate on my IMDb page? Is that actually your job?

C) What is your actual position at IMDb?

D) What is the contact information for the manager of IMDb so I can contact them.

E) What is your full name?

Please actually answer the questions.

Depsite showing you documentation of my actual data birth with a passport, you still have not changed my date of birth [REDACTED] 1978, even though I sent a copy of my passport. So that said, please remove it all together. It is actually illegal to publish this without my consent and it is clear that it is arbitrary you put up depending on the actor as some people have dates some people don't some birth dates are accurate some aren't. Obviously publishing such a thing can be detrimental to an actor who looks very young or visa or versa. I'm sure you understand, and I appreciate you removing this data off this site, as it is not approved by me personally and it is actually unlawful to do this against my consent. Thanks again for understanding and I appreciate you removing this data you have.

Hi there,

I am the actor Jason Cermak in your IMDB database at URL
<http://www.imdb.com/name/nm2656786/>

My date of birth is shown on my IMDB page and for the last couple years I have sent numerous requests to have this information removed from my IMDB page. Reason being; I look much younger on camera then my actual age, and casting directors and producers are seeing my birth date and I am losing jobs because of it. It is having a direct negative impact on my career.

I have tried requesting the birthdate be removed via the update information page to no avail so I'm hoping contacting you this way will help me get this removed.

Many thanks for your help.

Jason Cermak

Thank you for your prompt reply.

That is the reason that I am wishing for date of birth to be removed. It is incorrect and not factual and you are misrepresenting me with false information.

8/2/2012

If you wish to remain an accurate and trustworthy source I again ask you to remove the date of birth from my IMDB profile.

And again, your publishing of that information is having a direct negative impact on my career and in turn is costing me money.

I pay for the IMDB resume service annually and thus am a paying customer to your site and would like my request honoured.

Thank you for your understanding.

Hi there Junie,

I am a Canadian actor living in Vancouver and have been trying to get IMDB to take down my date of birth for the last 2 years and finally escalated it to the point where I was considering taking legal action. I had no idea you had already filed a lawsuit and I thought I was all alone in my thinking that this was unjust of IMDB.

For those of us that don't use a stage name having your actual date of birth published is a huge risk for the chance of identity theft, and on top of that, I have lost roles because I look younger than my age as well. The studio brings up my IMDB profile and I have got cut.

I just wanted to thank you for standing up for this injustice. If my email correspondence with IMDB would be of any use to you and this case I would be happy to supply it.

Hi Julie,

I am so glad you are suing IMOB. They deserve it. I suffered from them allowing inaccurate DOB on my IMOB page and I was only able to get it down because there was on or two digits off my actual DOB. They still would not remove it until SAG lawyers signed a statement that this was not my real DOB but I would have been screwed if it had been. I don't believe they have the right to put someone's real DOB up there. I really hope that the court rules in your favor as age discrimination is very prevalent in our industry. I am so worried about privacy issues on line and perhaps this will further protect privacy issues. Having DOB up only makes it easier for identity fraud also.

Hi Melissa, I'm surprised they actually removed the inaccurate birthdate. They usually force you to send in a passport to correct it instead. That was very smart of you and you're the only person I know who has ever gotten it successfully removed. I wholeheartedly agree with everything you're saying. Thanks for sending me this. Best wishes,
Julie

They did ask for my ID or passport but then I knew they would post my real date and I did not want that out there. So I spoke to sag lawyers in NY and they signed an affidavit that the age they have of me was not my real age. I proved it was inaccurate without having to give them my real age. I don't trust IMOB they have been rude to me when I wrote them to fix credits that were missing. Also around that time they were advertising to me to join IMOB pro and it occurred to me that then they could possibly do what they did to you to me so I never joined it. I have also been a victim of identity theft and that is a very important point that I hope your lawyer will bring up. to take someone's identity on of the ignorance you need is their DOB then SSN and I think there is not much else. I even wrote to Obama to remove the year from info on drivers license...as it promotes age discrimination. Please keep me posted I am praying for your success. A lot of people are.

I think you may have found a loophole to getting inaccurate birthdates removed. Are you on IMOB as Melissa Page? Having a stage name can protect your real identity at times.

- no... I changed my last name on here because I was very verbal about my dislike of SAG /AFTRA merger and my account was getting hacked and also friends liked my IMDb page and I wanted to like theirs but was warned about Facebook finding info from me liking a page on there so I changed my last name. I am Melissa Russo on IMDb

Melissa Page

- I mean IMDb finding info from my liking a page with my ID account

June 26

Julie Kbang

- I think Facebook is in a lawsuit right now because they were tracking people with the Like button, even if you weren't logged on.

Melissa Page

- Oh doesn't surprise me. Its gotten out of hand.

I'll keep you posted as the lawsuit progresses. Your story is interesting and I'll definitely keep in touch.

THE PETITION

This petition is to rally support in order for SAG, AFTRA, WGA, DGA, and any other entertainment unions to put pressure on IMDB.com (owned by Amazon.com) to remove birth dates from their site. We hope that if the unions receive a petition with enough names in support of this action, they will, in turn, put pressure on IMDB -- hopefully, enough pressure that IMDB will voluntarily remove birth dates from all individual's web pages at imdb.com. Whether the Unions help or not these names will be used to file a class action lawsuit on behalf of entertainment industry professionals everywhere that have been adversely affected by their unauthorized personal information, especially their birth date, being revealed and stated on IMDB's webpage

There is so much age discrimination in Hollywood. Even though someone may look or write or direct as a certain aged person would, people lose jobs everyday because they are "just too old" and sometimes "too young". IMDB has become the first source of information for industry professionals and therefore has the most impact on hiring. IMDB has been uncooperative in the past in removing or even changing birth dates. We believe that age should be private as it is in most other industries.

32	Karen Leabo	9/18/2010 5:01	As an actor, it's about how old I look (whether older or younger than my chronological age). There should be no other issue regarding age, and so showing my chronological age is not necessary.
33	Suzanne Doudy-Rose	9/18/2010 5:08	I know for a fact that I have lost jobs due to my birth year being listed on IMDb. I have been told this by numerous sources working on the productions in which I have lost to YOUNGER people. This has made me literally out of work now for a year as of December. I am told every day that I look ten years younger than I am, and when people are looking at me as an Assistant Coordinator to soon move to Coordinator, they think something is wrong with my work at my age, which is simply not true. I was in New York on 9/11/2001 and was out of the business for two years, then returned to college to better my education in production. Now my skills are stronger than ever and I've proven that on the few production jobs I've had: PLEASE help get our ages off of IMDb.
34	Tom Konkle	9/18/2010 5:20	Thank you for doing this. It is very needed and long overdue. Godspeed!
35	Deirdre Wagner	9/18/2010 5:27	My birthdate is on IMDb. I did NOT put it there. I do NOT authorize it's being there. And when I asked IMDb to take it off, they refused. This practice must be changed. IMDb must NOT make public any birthdates that are not approved by the individual in question.
36	Jordana Capra	9/18/2010 5:27	Thanks for doing this - and so eloquently! Great idea!

45	George S. Williams	9/18/2010 10:49	Age listing on IMDb is discriminatory. IMDb is supposed to be helping and supporting actors (who are also paying customers). But this practice is shameful.

What is important is not a person's age but how dedicated they are and how good at their craft. an actors, directors, or writers work should speak for itself. Also I have found that if someone puts the Talents age incorrectly on their IMDb page it is very difficult to get it corrected. It is not important for Talent to have their ages on IMDb and I support them being removed.

Talk about abuse and exploitation, as if Hollywood and the entertainment business in general were not difficult and exploitative enough. The IMDB has created problems where there were once NONE. And they keep citing the Freedom of Information Act, which really is an incredibly broad and abusive interpretation of the act. It's like Don't Ask Don't Tell being interpreted to mean that you can pull illegal searches of certain soldier's personal effects and discharge them without adequate reason, just because of their sexuality. California passed a law that forbade the DMV from releasing actor information to the public because of stalking concerns, but thanks to the stupid IMDB and dozens of other internet sites like people123, that law is rendered useless. IMDB is a gospel among industry reps, only because it allows them to be LAZY and abuse their power, and not question what they see. The IMDB is clearly not something the busi

Also there is the issue of erroneous bday input. Maybe they can at least agree not to let an "other" post bday info; make it a field that only the individual can alter---not rep, press, production etc. And if deceased...well I don't know about that. I was right about to "take-off" five years ago and I know for a fact I lost at least two jobs because of IMDB's refusal to remove an age I never put up in the first place. How they can promote something that prevents an individual from putting food on their table completely blows my mind. Not everyone is a star, most actors are just struggling day-to-day trying to keep their health insurance. While people's ages are interesting, it's not relevant. As the daughter of a writer whose career ended when he turned 60, I can tell you that age discrimination is very real.

Even after discontinuing my membership they elected to delete my photo but not my BIRTHDATE. That doesn't make sense at all. THEY ARE PLAYING A GAME. Not only does this get in the way of work, it also opens us up to identity theft!

374	Nicole Blessing	9/24/2010 1:01	I fully support the comments made in this petition. Whether in front of or behind the cameras, ageism in the creative fields is rampant and unacceptable. How easy is it to simply remove this piece of information? Equally so to protect from identity theft.
375	Freddie Donelli	9/24/2010 1:04	I would like to have my age removed from any and all websites that include them. It is not necessary in a business where people judge that information. It is ludicrous and pointless to have someone's information on a site when its obvious they are being discriminated for. I've also noticed a lot of ages on the imdb site are incorrect.
